SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.
WATCH MAKER.

Successor to R. F. Mook, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired with our damage being done there. Satisfactory repairs repaired and other instruments requiring accurate and accurate adjustment.

In relieving from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as every man capable of meeting the expectations of my former patrons.

H. F. HILLENMEYER,

Lexington, Ky.

The top given by the Assembly Ball Club Thursday night was a delightful affair.

Officer Hyde arrested a Louisville thief and burglar by the name of Brewer, alias Wilson, in this city, Tuesday, on the charge of having stolen an overcoat and some other articles in Shelbyville Saturday. He had the overcoat on when taken, and was sent to Shelbyville for trial. A woman accompanying him, who claimed to be his wife, attempted to impose upon Rev. Father Young, by representing herself to be an object of charity.

In response to an invitation, we attended on Thursday evening the first annual supper given by the "J. C. S. D." Club, of Eminence, in honor of the young ladies of Eminence College. The Club is composed of young gentlemen, the majority of whom are under twenty years of age. Mr. W. B. Hughes, formerly of this city being President, and they certainly know how to get up a first-class entertainment. The company assembled at an early hour in the parlors of the Moody House and enjoyed themselves in pleasant conversation until 9 o'clock, when they were invited over to their Hall, where the most sumptuous repast was served down to us. The tables were arranged in the form of the letter H, and were tastefully decorated by the skillful hands of Mrs. W. P. Thorn, Misses Lucy Hooker and Mattie Arnold, and truly graced under their weight of good things. An address of welcome to the guests was delivered on behalf of the Club by Mr. John A. Crabb and responded to by Mr. G. Allison Holland, of Louisville, after which the following toasts were given:

"Our guests"—W. P. Thorn, Esq.

Response by O. H. Pollard Esq., of Louisville.

"The Ladies"—Dr. O. D. Todd.

Response by Mr. W. P. Thorn, Esq.

"Our Congressmen"—Hon. W. B. Fleming, of Louisville.

Response by A. B. Smith, Esq.

To the credit of the young gentlemen he found that wine was banished from the table and everything passed off splendidly. During the time the guests were at the table the delightful music was furnished by the Shelbyville String Band.

We wish the Club many returns of the very pleasant occasion. We are under obligations to Mrs. W. P. Thorn, and Mr. C. V. Holland, Secretary, for courtesies shown.

The corn show of Col. C. E. Bowman, Commissioner of Agriculture, took place Tuesday afternoon in front of the Commissioner's office in the State House yard, and was witnessed by quite a number of farmers. The following named gentlemen acted as judges and awarded the premiums: Judge W. S. Pryor, of Henry; Judge Richard, of Mt. Sterling; Hon. Lyman Boyd, of Callaway; Capt. Jacob Saigert, of Woodford; W. A. Reese, Esq., of Shelby; and Gen. Scott Brown, Messrs. Alex. Julian, W. H. Lewis, R. S. Triplett, and W. L. Collins, of Franklin. There were some seventy-five or eighty entries and the samples shown were all very fine. Following is a list of the awards:

White Corn—First premium $15, R. F. Coons, Louisville; second premium $10, T. J. Delcorer, Little Mount. Spencer county.

Yellow Corn—First premium $15, W. A. A. L. M. Reese, Shelby county; second premium $10, same.

Bread Corn—First premium $15, Crittendon, Ky.; second premium $10, Joe Faulkner, Boyle county.

Mixed or Red Corn—Premium $15, J. J. Reese, Henry county.

Honey Corn—Premium $15, L. J. Cox, Franklin county.

Cattle Corn—Premium $15, Joe Faulkner, Boyle county.

Samples which were raised from seed that took the premium at the Centennial and Cincinnati Expositions, and from seed imported from Normandy, were among those exhibited and in every instance were beaten by our native corn. So Kentucky is to the front as a corn raising State.

Holiday presents at Selbert's.

There will be preaching at the Taylorson Chapel tomorrow afternoon. A new walk is nearly completed down there from the city, and it is just a nice distance for an afternoon walk.

You are invited to call at J. M. Bart's Old Nassau House Corner on next Thursday, the 7th inst., and examine the choice assortment of Toys & Holiday goods, which will be opened on that day.

The Thanksgiving dinner spread by the enterprising proprietor of the Capital Hotel was an appealing feast that was enjoyed by a number of invited guests. We have indeed a Capital Hotel with a capital proprietor who knows how to do the capital thing.

Benson.

Mrs. Ezra Allison is thought to be convalescent.

Morris and Ella Sheets are very ill at this time.

Marshall fever is raging between Benson and Jacksonville.

The grandstand has turned out twice lately. Go to old boys.

Mrs. Merchant, of South Frankfort, is visiting Mrs. James Hallett, of this place.

The meeting at North Benson Church, closed on the 28th, with only three additional.

Mrs. J. H. Sheets has been very sick, but we are now glad to hear that she is decidedly better.

Mrs. Kate Smithers, of Frankfort, is on a visit to her father, Mr. James Shouse, of this neighborhood.

Mr. Amos Robinson has about completed and will soon move into his new dwelling on Prospect Hill, near this place.

Died—Tuesday, the 21st, at 3 a. m., Mrs. Alice Jesse. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved husband and little one.

Mr. Wm. F. Rodgers has improved the looks of his premises considerably by building a spanking new barn. Come again, William.

Hog killing has commenced in earnest, and the butcher is satisfied, and promises to say no more about Red. Best in peace, Joseph.

Our new bridge is "just splendid," as the girl said. We forgot to say in our last that Squire Hamilton was the architect and Capt. Robt. Fox builder of the same.

The C. & O. train last Tuesday night, the 21st, ran over two valuable cows, belonging to Mrs. C. C. Foxgrove, of this place, killing them. There was a little trifling cut, with the cows, who didn't they kill it too! Unfortunately there was no beef for us, it not being known in time.

When will we hear the last of the Ashland affair. It has been long, and why does not Gov. Blackburn call a court of inquiry, and let the court settle the blame where it belongs, or is he satisfied to take Maj. Allen's report and nothing else? Jackson loved his been shot, and some one is to blame.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 24, 1882.
Received of the Kenton Insurance Company of Kentucky, through Mark Calmes, agent of said company at Frankfort, Ky., the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) being in full payment and compromise settlement of all claims and demands for loss or damage by fire which occurred on the 11th day of November, 1882 to the property insured under Policy No. 61,177 issued at the Frankfort, Ky. Agency of said company, and in consideration of said payment the said Kenton Insurance Co. is hereby discharged forever from all further claim by reason of said fire, loss and damage, and the policy is hereby surrendered and canceled.

E. H. TAYLOR, Jr., Mayor.
By F. V. Gray, City Clerk.
There is no good reason why every insurable dwelling and its contents, every piece of insurable farm property, every church, school house, college, academy, court-house, public building, store building and stock of merchandise in Kentucky, so situated as not to be subject to a sweeping fire, should not be insured in the Kenton—up to the limit it will undertake.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 2, 1882.

Rev. Dr. J. Jones, late of Louisville, will preach at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning and evening.

New Paper.

Hon. Martin W. Laffay, late of the Louisville Sunday News, and Mr. Harry Evans, son of Joe Morris Evans, of this city, have purchased the printing material formerly used by Ben Deering and lately by the Dispatch Company, and will some time next week begin the publication of a daily paper in this city.

A distressing fire occurred in Versailles on Thanksgiving Day. A negro woman locked her children in her room and went away to work. It happened that the children knocked the stove-pipe down and thus set the house on fire. Being a small frame, it was in full blaze before discovered, and one of the children was burned to death, another so badly injured that it will die, and the third badly scorched. The house was totally destroyed with all it contained.

The Board of U. S. Engineers, appointed to investigate the conduct of the work on the Kentucky river, arrived in this city Sunday morning on board the steamer Harriet, and on Monday morning met at the Central Hotel for the purpose of hearing evidence in substantiation of charges preferred against the management of the work by Mr. W. H. Murray and others of this city. A number of witnesses were examined during that day and Tuesday morning, and the officers composing the Board left on the afternoon train Tuesday for Cincinnati, where they will probably make up their report.

A difficult case Thursday afternoon at the grocery of Eli Gardner, about a mile and a half from the city on the Versailles pike, which resulted in the death of a negro by the name of George Grayson. It seems Grayson owed Gardner, the proprietor of the establishment, forty cents, and was asked by that individual for the amount, when some high words arose, and Grayson drew a Barlow pocket knife and started towards Gardner, saying he would give him forty cents, when Gardner drew a pistol and fired the ball striking Grayson in the right eye passing through the head, and killing him instantly. Grayson was looked upon as a bad man, having served a term in the penitentiary. About a year ago he had a fuss with his brother and in the row received a head of hot shot in his breast and shoulder from a gun in the hands of the former.

Gardner came in and gave himself up, and will have his examining and Monday.

Besides all this, it is a fact that there is every reason that can be possible to expect that the State Capital should come to Lexington and be built right on the site of the present Kentucky University building. There are some very nice people in Frankfort, but that does not justify Kentucky in putting a fine new Capitol building that we are going to have down under a mill on the banks of a one-horse river. Lexington is the place for it, and we want a fine hotel to induce it to come here and to take care of the members when they do come, and we are going to make an organized effort to get the Capitol here—Lexington Times.

Just so. But it strikes us that one reason exists which you have lost sight of. That the new Capitol building is already about one-third completed, and stands under a hill on the banks of a one-horse river, and its foundations are so deep, and solid that like the Fishman's dock, all I—I can't up tip it. That organized effort has been made by Lexington every year or two since the present century began, and the capital has not budged an inch. The famous charge of the Molligan Guards, during the last session of the Legislature, did not even shake it. Don't you worry, sonny, when the capital is put on wheels it will hardly be set down at the cross-roads viarage on the banks of the majestic Town Fork, but will be carried to Kentucky's metropolis at the Falls of the Ohio, where Mr. C. Johnson reigneth not, and men fall not down and worship Joe Blackburn.

"Rough on Rats."

Cleats out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers, etc. Druggists.

About three o'clock Saturday afternoon a colored boy in the employ of Mr. John T. Buckley was sent into the cellar of the old Commonwealth building for some charcoal and took a coal oil lamp down with him. He set the lamp down on the pile of charcoal, went back up stairs, and while he was gone the charcoal began to creep from under the lamp when it was overturned, the oil ran out, took fire and in a little while the cellar was full of smoke. The alarm of fire was sounded and the department called out, but a few buckets of water extinguished the flames. It was rumored on the street that a barrel of gasoline had exploded in the cellar, but there was none there, except the bricks, sewer pipe, and charcoal were kept in it. Mr. Buckley had just received a barrel of gasoline, but it lay on the sidewalk and had never been tapped. He never orders more than one tap at a time and does not keep that in his establishment, but has it stored elsewhere.

The fifth anniversary of the organization of the Christian Church in this city occurs to-morrow. The church began with only seven members and was organized by Elder John T. Johnston, of Georgetown, and Elder P. S. Fall, who at the time was conducting a very flourishing seminary for young ladies at his beautiful home, "Popular Hill," three miles from Frankfort, on the Oxenton pike. During the thirty years of its existence the church has had in all eight different preachers, and has received into its membership seven hundred and sixty three persons. Its present membership numbers three hundred and forty-three.

The occasion of its fifth anniversary will be full of historic interest, and Elder Fall, who organized the church, and was its preacher for the first twenty-five years of its existence, will preach in the forenoon at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The cellar of the grocery of Mr. L. Tobin was entered on Sunday night, and five pieces of new bacon, lard and shoulders carried off. The theft affected an entrance by raising the iron grating in front of the two-room and sliding down into the coal bin. He then went into the other cellar, scoured the meat, opened a door leading into an ally next the Market-house, and left. A negro by the name of Sam Girden, who had been employed for one day last week, and discharged by Mr. Tobin, was arrested on suspicion, from the fact that he appeared in a bathroom across the street late that night with candles on his hat, and when taken down into the cellar his foot exactly fitted the track made by the thief in the soft clay of the cellar floor, and his shoes were stained with the same kind of earth. Girden is the same fellow that, about a year ago, was found by a young lady hidden under her bed at the Merivether Hotel, on going into her room to retire for the night. His examining trial will take place to-day.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

The first snow of the season fell Tuesday afternoon.

Another wedding has been set for the 7th inst. by Madame Hunor.

The firm of Daily & Calvert, grocers, on Market street, has dissolved. Mr. Calvert retires.

Rev. J. W. Pugh preached his last sermon as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this city last Sunday.

Mr. Wm. T. Bacon died at his residence on Holmes street, Wednesday night, after a lingering illness of about a year.

The Dudley Institute has been removed from the Reynolds property, in South Frankfort, to the residence of Col. Brown, on Wilkinson street.

Mr. Hugh R. Ayres, having completed the work at Lock No. 2, has been transferred to Lock No. 4, just below this city, where he will make a survey for further improvements and repairs upon the dam at that point.

Some of the finest Irish potatoes have ever been raised this year by Mr. Chas. C. Newton, of this county. They were his first crop and if he continues to succeed, as well in future no farmer in the county can beat him.

Mr. Chas. E. Taylor, Jr., of the Yeoman Bakery, while assisting in putting up a cutting machine in that establishment Tuesday morning, got the forefinger of his right hand caught between two cog wheels and had the first joint cut off.

Mr. W. J. Chinn lost on Sunday, from unlik fever, his little registered Jersey cow, Belle of Patterson, 1904. She was a member of a family that is now nearly extinct, and was valued at $2,000. Mr. Chinn sold a calf of her's not long since for $900.

Messrs. Griffin Bros. have on hand a large stock of toys, which they have determined to sell off at any price, regardless of cost, as they have determined to quit that branch of their business. If you want to buy something of the kind for your children go and see them. They will open their stock on Tuesday next.

Messrs. Len & Co. have reopened their livery stable in the stable at the foot of Madison street, in the rear of Mrs. McKee's residence, recently erected by Mr. W. T. Gaines, where they can at all times furnish the public with carriages, buggies and horses. Their telephone number is 25, and all orders received in that way will receive prompt attention.

In cases of fire, where the alarm is sent in by telephone, the persons who give the alarm are requested to give the location of the house on fire, and not the number of the telephone station, upon which they are talking. When only the number of the station is given the firemen have to run over the list of stations to find what part of town the fire is in, and delay in getting out is caused thereby.

The following are the candidates for Councillor to be voted for to day, three to be elected from each ward.

First Ward—E. H. Taylor, Jr., Geo. C. Drane, Missus Williams, and Richard Tobin.

Second Ward—Lewis Mangum, R. C. Church, John E. Miles, J. L. Speed, and Peter Sower.

Third Ward—Jas. C. Dudley, R. K. McClure, John Mangum, Dr. B. F. Duvall, Andrew Schneider, and J. W. Helmer.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally. It acts directly upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. For sale by Jos. LeCompte, South Side.

Attention is called to the article headed "quick work," in another column. The Kew-ton is a home company and all money paid to it is kept at home.

Judge Major has called a special term of the Circuit Court, to begin on the first Monday in January and continue twenty-four judicial days, for the trial of criminal and delinquency cases.

Mr. Frank Short, who has been confined to his bed for the past five or six years, died on Wednesday night. His funeral took place yesterday morning from the Catholic Church.

Mr. James Gibbons and Miss Lizzie O'Connor, a popular young couple of this city, were married Wednesday afternoon at the Catholic Church, Rev. Father L. Young officiating. The happy pair left on the 2:30 train for a short bridal tour. The groom is one of the cleverest fellows in the world and has won one of the handsomest young ladies in this city for his bride. May their wedded life be one of continued happiness.

During the prevalence of the recent fire on Main street, Mr. John Baltz lost the following articles which are valuable to no one else but himself, and which also prize highly on account of some of them being heirlooms and the others keepsakes: A piano and peddle, two walking canes, one black with a white head, and the other with a silver plate upon the head bearing the initials of J. S. M., a large scrap book filled with engravings and a book entitled "Golden Truths." Any person having either of the above articles in their possession will confer a great favor upon the owner by either returning them to her or leaving them at this office.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Pursuant to a call issued, a meeting of citizens opposed to the use of whisky and money in our city and county elections was held at the Court House Tuesday night.

On motion of Mr. E. P. Bryan, Rev. J. B. Tharp was called to the chair and H. G. Mattern appointed Secretary.

On motion, Messrs. E. P. Bryan, J. N. Crutcher, and E. A. Fellmer were appointed a committee on resolutions, who reported the following:

Resolved, That we deprecate the use of intoxicating liquors or money in our elections. Believing that it has been the source of much unwise legislation, and has for many years controlled our elections of public officers, we are firmly of the opinion that the time has come for us to declare that we will not vote for nor support a candidate who brings to his aid either liquor or money to advance his interests, and that we declare our unqualified condemnation of all undue means for election of candidates to any office, believing that representatives of the people should be selected for their ability, fitness for office and entire cleanness from all cliques or jobs.

E. P. BRYAN,
J. N. CRUTCHER,
E. A. FELLMER.

The meeting was addressed by several gentlemen.

On motion it was ordered that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the city papers.

J. B. THARP,
Chairman.

H. G. MATTERN, Secy.

The meeting would have been largely attended, but for the fact that many persons went to the Court House in the early part of the evening, found the Chancery Court in session, and thinking there to be no meeting went away. The court adjourned about eight o'clock, when the above proceedings took place.

Belle Point.

Mr. Ed. Brawner and family have moved back to town.

Mr. Lucy Conner, of Louisville, is visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. Jno. S. Davis has rented rooms from Mr. Jas. Moore, and moved in.

Miss Nannie Silvers visited relatives in the lower part of the county last week.

Mr. Chas. P. Nichols visited relatives in Woodland county the first of the week.

Mr. W. H. Netherland, who has been quite ill for some time, is improving slowly.

Miss Lizzy Penn, from the Pleasant Ridge neighborhood, visited Miss Nannie Silvers Monday.

Mr. W. H. Lewis has purchased of the Ed. Burns heirs a lot on Kentucky avenue, adjoining Capt. S. V. Pence's property, for $450 cash.

Miss Maggie Demorest, who has been visiting the Messrs. Todd at Lake Park for some time, returned to her home in New Jersey Wednesday.

Mr. Sid. S. Kling, who has been on a three weeks' visit to relatives in Illinois and Missouri, returned in time to eat Thanksgiving dinner in town Thursday.

On dark nights the street lamp on the corner of Kentucky and Benson avenues is kept lighted by Mr. L. McKee, who has the best wishes of many night pedestrians.

The annual election of five Councilmen to represent the people of Belle Point for the year 1883 closed off January 6th. It is probable the same Council will be re-elected.

The Champion Saw-mill finished cutting for this season last week, having cut since January 1st eleven thousand five hundred logs, making 2,640,532 feet of lumber, being an increase of nearly a million feet over last season's work.

About three weeks ago some one shot a very valuable horse belonging to Judge W. I. Pence through the back joint of the left hind leg, and he is now in a very bad condition. He was on Mr. Geo. Macklin's pasture at the time he was shot. It was done between Saturday night and Monday morning.

Captain S. V. Pence informs us that the stock in the People's Kentucky River Navigation Company has nearly all been taken, and anyone that has not subscribed and wishes to do so, can find stock books at the following places: D. L. Hall's grocery, Ferguson & Meek's Machine shop and J. M. Wakefield's lumber office. He also says that the dividend derived from this company will not be less than 10 per cent. If managed properly, besides the extreme low rate of freight it will afford shippers.

Now Captain Pence, the originator of this enterprise, is well and favorably known to the people along this river as a man of untiring business energy, and in every way capable of taking charge of this enterprise and making a grand success of it. The people along this river, who have been so long enough by high freights, should encourage Capt. Pence in getting up this company by subscribing to the capital stock, and by otherwise leading their aid to a company whose motto shall be "low rates and cheap transportation to all."

A MINISTER'S ESCAPE.

From the Asylum to the Bosom of His Home—How it was Done.

A prominent minister residing at the east has just made the following statement, which is herewith reprinted entire:

To the Editor of the World:

I have always shrunk from appearing prominently before the public, but in a sense of the duty to humanity and the world, I am now to ask this opportunity for making a brief statement in your paper.

Whether it be true with others I cannot say, but during my entire life I have frequently been conscious that something was slowly and steadily working to undermine my health and life. What it was I could not tell, but that some enemy of my being was devouring me within I was certain. At times I would seem comparatively well, and then I would be stricken with the most distressing symptoms. I would feel peculiar pains in various parts of my body, my head would seem heavy, my respiration labored; my appetite would be gone, and one day and I would loathe food the day following.

Then again I would lose all interest in life; would feel weary without exertion; would become sleepy at all hours and restless at night. Occasionally my breathing would be labored and my heart almost motionless, while at other times it would palpitate violently. I thought these troubles were the result of an ailment, and I treated accordingly, but I got no better. Shortly afterwards my stomach became deranged, my food failed to digest, and the fluids I passed were of a peculiar odor and color. And yet I did not realize that these things meant anything serious. Finally I consulted a number of eminent physicians, each one of whom took a different view as to the cause of my trouble. One said I was suffering from brain disease, another spinal difficulty, others heart affection, kidney disease, etc. My symptoms were terrible, and in the hope of relief I was contented, until I sought relief in almost every known form of treatment. During one of these attacks, while at Red Bank, N. J., a physician was called, and left a prescription. After he had gone, I requested a friend to go and ask him what he thought of my trouble. The reply was: "Oh, he will be all right in a few days; it is only an attack of delirium tremens." He was at once informed that this was impossible, as I had never used any kind of intoxicating drinks; whereupon he returned, made inquiries and changed his prescription. But all the care of my friends and physicians availed nothing. I grew worse day by day, and what was most terrible to think of, I did not know what ailed me, nor could I find any one who would.

During the summer and fall of last year my pain increased from 120 to 130 beats, and I had no relief from food, and was indeed a most pitiable object. I continued in this state until last December, when I became unconscious and lost my reason, though I had two physicians in attendance, and my friends placed implicit confidence in this condition I was taken to Brattleboro, Vt., for the purpose of being placed in the insane asylum. I remained there until last April, being attended all the while by my faithful wife who never left me and believed that some disease and not insanity was the cause of all my trouble. I realized consciousness in March last, and I became again in a sane home. The physicians advised that I remain, but I insisted upon leaving, and we began the journey, traveling slowly. I was met at the dock by a friend whom I recognized, and I became again in a sane condition and remained so for over a week. When I once more recognized my friends and knew my surroundings I determined to try as a last resort a treatment of which I had heard much but knew nothing. Neither myself nor friends had much faith that it or anything could help me, but we resolved to try. We accordingly dismissed the physicians, gave up all other remedies, and I rejoice to say that with the blessing of Him who guided us, I am today a well man, having not been so vigorous for many years, and I owe it all to the wonderful, almost miraculous power of Warner's Safe Kidney Cure, the remedy which I used.

You can well imagine how grateful I must feel under the circumstances, and like a new creature. I earnestly desire that all who are suffering should know and avail themselves of this means of recovery. Had it not been for the remedy above named I should doubtless now be within the wall of an asylum or in my grave. The great trouble with my case was that no one seemed to know what I was afflicted with, and I am positive that thousands of people in America to-day are in the same or a similar condition, and that the cause is the same. Kidney troubles are the most deceptive of all diseases. They have no symptoms of their own, but often show the symptoms of nearly every known complaint. I knew that people are dying every day from supposed consumption, apoplexy, heart disease, spinal complaint, and many other diseases, when, could the real cause be known, it would be found to do but the same thing. In their advanced stages kidney troubles are the most terrible of all known maladies, as my own experience can fully verify. That I had a right disease of the kidneys there can be no doubt. The symptoms were very true of many other diseases is equally certain, and that I was doomed to a terrible death had I not been saved as I was, I am positive. The following letter just received confirms this:

VERMONT, ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE, 1.
BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT, Oct. 30, 1882.
Rev. E. D. Hopkins:
DEAR SIR: Yours of the 21st inst. received. We congratulate you not only upon the continuance of your health, but also upon its apparent continual improvement.

Few persons, I think, have passed through so exhausting experience as you and rallied from it. Certainly I have known one who came to us in a similar, and for days and weeks in no hopeless state for amendment as you, and who survived and recovered from it, for I think, you may now consider yourself restored and on your feet on the convalescent list. Hoping for the continuance of your present health, with the best wishes from all here,

I am, yours truly,

J. DRAPER.

BRATTLEBORO, N. J., Nov. 2, 1882.

My Dear Friend: Replying to your letter I would say, I have been acquainted with my highly valued friend, the Rev. E. D. Hopkins about eighteen months, and very intimately acquainted for about six months past. For a little more than five months he was an inmate of my house, and he enjoyed constant intercourse with each other. When he came in April last he was almost a perfect wreck in point of health. I thought he had come to us but to die. Soon afterwards he began the use of some of H. H. Warner & Co.'s remedies, namely, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, Safe Nerve and Safe Pills. From almost the time he began their use, his improvement was very marked and wonderful, and when he left us, he was having taken some two dozen bottles he was like a new man. The change was the most remarkable I ever witnessed.

SAMUEL MILLER.

(Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.)

In view, therefore, of these facts and with a hope that all who read this may take timely warning, I make this open statement freely and for the good of my fellow men.

(REV.) E. D. HOPKINS,
East Ridgford, Vt., Nov. 7, 1882.

Capt. Sam. Collins now has on hand about 2,000 young water mops, namely three and four years old, which he will set out at low prices, and warrant to live.

Messrs. McElroy & Collins purchase a few days since from Mr. W. H. Chinn a yearling Billy by Lover, a winning Bay, Ten Broeck and the broad mare, Sallie Harper, by Endruser. The latter is stabled to Blue Eyes. Prices private.

Messrs. W. J. & W. H. Lewis sold on Saturday, to Mr. W. L. Collins, a fine yearling Billy by Ten Broeck, first dam by Planet, second dam by Australian, third dam by Lexington, for $100. Mr. Collins will place her in charge of Ed. Jordan, the celebrated trainer at Fleecewood Farm, who will doubtless have her in readiness to start in some of the spring races, judging from her breeding she will be heard from on the turf in the next year or two.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed, mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. Rice, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

CIN., O., Nov. 16, 1881.
Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.
